

CONNECTIONS NT Connections Technical Programme at The North Wall Arts Centre

The Technical Theatre programme at The North Wall is open to young technicians between 14 - 18 years.

What's involved?

- Attending a Meet and Greet at The North Wall
- Attending a 'Technical Theatre Crash Course' Day at The North Wall Arts Centre (travel expenses covered)
- Completing a portfolio of work
- Leading on a National Theatre show and assisting on another over the weekend
- Gaining technical theatre skills
- Gaining confidence in your role in the rehearsal room

Technical Programme 2022

AIMS and OBJECTIVES	OUTCOMES
All young technicians will be sent 'What	Young technicians will have an increased should I do during rehearsals?' sheet with	understanding of the role of a helpful tips, questions to ask the director and	technician/stage manager in the rehearsal
how to annotate a technician's script.	process.
All young technicians would attend an	Young Technicians will feel more confident introductory day that covers a crash course	and prepared ahead of the NT
in Health and Safety, Sound, Lighting and	Connections Festival.
Stage Management.
Each young technician will be mentored by a	Young Technicians will feel supported and member of The North Wall Technical team.	have an increased understanding of technical theatre.
All expenses would be covered to encourage	More young technicians from a variety of open access.	backgrounds will want to be involved as there will be no barriers to overcome
Each young technician would (where	Young technicians will feel more confident possible) take the lead in running the tech for	in their ability to tech a show and gain their show and assisting on another show	further understanding by assisting on a during the festival.	show that is not familiar to them.
Each young person on placement would be	Young technicians will be able to explain required to write a Technical Programme	skills learnt and evaluate the programme.
Diary outlining their experience and skills learnt. A template will be provided by The North Wall and emailed to partner companies to pass on to their young technicians.

Email Abie for more information and to apply: waltona@thenorthwall.com